

Moneen, Pleasantly Saying The Most Terrible Things

Everything's changing
Can't wait to see you when you die
Everything's changing
Can't wait to see you when you die

And with things changing
So much, so fast, so once, so while
And I'm still waiting to see you

When you die alone
And wait for nothing now
Sit alone and wait to die (to die)

Nothing changes...
So stop, so still, so cut and dry
I'm still waiting to say the truth that I can't wait to watch you die
I know you heard me say it now a million times
To say die alone and wait for nothing now

Wait! That's just not right!
To sit alone and wait for you to see that I have nothing left to say (to say)
To sit alone and wait for you to say (to say)
To sit alone and wait for you to say (to say)
To see that I have nothing left to say (to say)

Y-e-a-h
Summer's almost here...
Y-e-a-h
Summer's almost here...
Y-e-a-h
(I can't wait till you die)
Summer's almost here...

Almost here...
Wake up! Summer's almost here
Wake up! Summer's almost here [x2]

Wake up! Summer's almost here
(I can't wait till you die) [x10]

Wake up! Summer's almost here
(Summer's already here)
