

Monkey Flip, My So Called Friend

When I talk to you on the phone,
You tell me what you said,
But then I here from someone else's mouth,
The real truth instead.

That's right I know you've lied to me,
But I still don't know your reasons,
I thought that you could tell me the truth,
And realise my feelings.

Chorus

I was wrong, I can't trust you anymore,
Or anything you say,
Maybe you'll stop one day,
My so-called friend.

So what happens now,
Now my so called friend,
I can't trust you any more
So I guess this is the end.

Chorus

I was wrong, I can't trust you anymore,
Or anything you say,
Maybe you'll stop one day,
My so-called friend.
