

Monroe Michael, It's A Lie

It's a lie when you told me what you said
It's a lie, things you hid inside your head
I realize why I always failed to see the times
That you cried
It's a lie when you walk the other way
It's a lie when you tell me you can't stay
It's no too late to be the man who realized
When we died
It's a lie. It's a lie.
It's a lie when you talk about it
Alibis become your big habit
Wondering who you can tell your tales to
When all the words are see-through, see-through
It's a lie. It's a lie.
It's a lie when you tell me it's a fact
It's a lie, black is white and white is black
I feel inclined to smile 'cause you see
Your eyes remind me all the while
It's a lie. It's a lie. It's a lie.
It's a lie.
