

Monrose, Another Love In Me

Someone got me thinking today
Now my life's in place
She won't go away
I guess your dreams are here to stay
Something got my feelings this way
Like a winter takes a summer day
Please just take your dreams away
Won't stand for any love,
Knocking at my door, ha ha
You want love on your account
When you're insecure
Don't talk of love and tenderness
I'll give you all the happiness
Till you see another love in me
Somebody's lying with me tonight
Sure felt good but it gave me a fright
I pay the price for cheap advice, um
And maybe love has got that frown on me again
And wiped the smile clean off my face
I guess my love is out of place
I won't stand for any love,
Knock, knock, knocking at my door, ha ha
You want love on your account
When you're insecure
Don't talk of love and tenderness
I'll give you all the happiness
Till you see another love in me
Don't talk of love and tenderness
I'll give you all the happiness
Till you see another love in me
Till you see
Till you see
Till you see
Don't talk of love and tenderness
I'll give you all the happiness
Till you see another love in me
Don't talk of love and tenderness
I'll give you all the happiness
Till you see another love in me
Don't talk of love and tenderness
I'll give you all the happiness
Till you see another love in me
Don't talk of love and tenderness
I'll give you all the happiness
Till you see another lover in me
Till you see another love
Till you see another love in me, baby
