

Monrose, Strike the Match pretty baby with the blue jeans on youve been starin at me all night long i know you want it

and you know its wrong but you dont worry about a thing do ya i feel you sweating me from over there i see the girl your with but you dont care acting like im shy
but boy you best beware i can light your match and start a fire in here

i know you want it
i know you need it
and how im feeling
i really really really wanna
strike the match
strike strike the match
strike strike your match ...
i know you want it
strike the match
strike strike your ...

now i dont mind if we docee doe do a little dance to service your ego but i aint tryin to take out that door you gotta tell your girl to leave dont mean to interrupt the perfect date but i need a man who only spins one plate flames are getting higher and they just wont wait boy i know youre thirsty come and get your milkshake
