

Monrose, What They Want

Strophe 1:

I enter my mind and try to delve
Into the Thoughts
I felt
I knew so well
Seem to get Lost
Patterns corrupt
Tainted, and now I don't know where I stand

Bridge

I Feel Misunderstood
I can't get the message right
Maybe I should trust
But will it rectify
The troubles that I have are interfering with my life
Now I'm bout to cross
The invisble Line
Who's right? I'll fight
People (I ain't gonna say what they want What they want)
People always say what they want
Never ending up with what they need
Not like me
People always say what they want
I never get a chance to speak
They think I'm weak
People always say what they want
Always find a way to hate
Big Mistake
(I ain't gonna say what they want What they want I ain't gonna say what they want What they want)

Strophe 2:

I'm willing to fall, as long I know
That it's due to my own decisions
Don't have a say
Locked and away
Yes, it is me whose fronting the picture.

Chorus:

.....

Strophe 3:

Picking myself up off the ground
You think I'm Lost
But now I'm found
I can still accept your help
I'm stronger now
Then I've ever felt

Chorus (2x)
