

Monstrosity, Shadow Of Obliteration

Victims of a dying world
Succumb beneath a wrath of terror
Oblivious to the awaiting doom
A never ending rain of fire consumes

Blind they sleepwalk the path of lies
Offer prayers to an empty sky
Wasted effort only made in vain
Weak are tortured in endless pain

(#1) When darkness falls
Blind illusions deceive us
Hoping for a non existent savior
While we alone are strung enough

Victims of a dying faith
I have now grown to hate and forever turn my back to the lights weak embrace

Darkness once confined within demon absolved no longer bound dark forces controlling the mind spill forth onto realms of light (REPEAT 1)

Victims of a dying world
Succumb beneath a wrath of terror
Oblivious to the awaiting doom
A never ending rain of fire burns....

Blind they sleepwalk the path of lies
Offer prayers to an empty sky
Wasted effort only made in vain
Weak are tortured in endless pain
