

Montgomery Gentry, I Ain't Got It All That Bad

I ain't got it all that bad there's tougher lives I might have had Sometimes I live hand in mouth but there are those who go without There might be things I wish I had but when I look at where I'm at
I ain't got it all that bad

In my time I've tried it all three love drugs and alcohol got loaded up to kiss the sky just about kissed the world goodbye there were those who never made it back but me I got lucky found my landing pad hey I ain't got it all that bad

I got the sunshine and a few good friends I've found a roof to give me shelter when the rain comes down I've got tomorrow and the promise that it brings a few chances still worth taking and that dreams still have wings these days I don't ask for much just the grace of God and my woman's touch strength each day to face a fight and a place in someone's prayers at night Life enough to love and laugh if I end up with half of that I ain't got it all that bad

I ain't got it all that bad
I ain't got it all that bad
