

Montgomery Gentry, Lucky Man

I have days where I hate my job, this little town and the whole world too and last sunday when my C

I have moments when I curse the rain then complain when the suns too hot, I look around at what e about all ive got

[chorus]

but I know Im a lucky man gods given me a pretty fair hand, got a house and peice of land, a few d old trucks still runnin good, my tickers tickin like they say it should, Ive got supper in the oven a goo one more day to be my little kids dad, lord knows Im a lucky man got some friends that would be here fast, I could call em any time of day, got a brother who's got m I swears a saint, got a brand new rod and reel, got a full week off this year, dad had a close call las miracle he's stil here

[chorus]

my old trucks still runnin good, my tickers tickin like they say it should, I got supper in the oven, a g and even my bad days aint that bad...yeah Im a lucky man

Im a lucky lucky man