

Montgomery Gentry, Why Do I Feel Like Running

When I was just a little baby
My momma held my hand
And tried to hold me steady all she could
But I pulled just like a full grown man
Now momma was a real fine woman
Only angel I've ever known
Guess I musta turned out more like my daddy
A chip off a rolling stone

Sometimes I wake up a sweatin
Eyes open wide
I feel like a freight train a comin
I wish I knew the reason why
Why do I feel like running

I love the life I'm living
I've made myself a happy home
I've got a woman who's in love with a man
But she's worried about my gypsy bone

Sometimes I wake up a sweatin
Eyes open wide
I feel like a freight train a comin
I wish I knew the reason why
Why do I feel like running

I tell her I ain't never leaving
I only travel with my mind
A part of her knows that I'm in it for the long haul
Part of her knows I'm lying

Sometimes I wake up a sweatin
Eyes open wide
I feel like a freight train a comin
I wish I knew the reason why
Why do I feel like running

Why do I feel like running

Why do I feel like running

Why do I feel like running

Why do I feel like running, yeah.
