Montrose, I Got The Fire

If you're lookin' for someone that you can keep Well, baby pass me by.

And if you want something that's twenty years deep

Baby, don't even try.

But if you want someone to take your soul

Maybe lift you a little bit higher...

I got the fire

Just & amp;#039;cuz I'm skinny, don't you sell me cheap

I'm as long as a country mile.

Well some like it wide and some like it deep

And guess which one's my style!

If you think you can beat me at my own game

Well baby, Í say you'ré a liar.

Well, I got the fire
