

Moonlyght, Falling

I am falling in a dark hole of sin
Only the dark can still enthrall me
Can you feel a dead smell around
All my hopes are gone forever

Escape to free yourself
Life of cowardice (x2)

Run, our world is so empty
This is not harmony, not victory

This is hell as you feared to be
Are you proud of being the scapegoat

Of everyone's awful fate
Of everyone's twisted mind
Of everyone's pleasure & pain
Of everyone's fucking rules

You're the one who might change something
But your the prisoner of all your hate inside
Be the one who will change everything
Not falling to the ground, not falling in the end

Run, our world is so empty
Are you proud of being the scapegoat
Of everyone's awful fate
Of everyone's twisted mind

This is hell as you feared to be
Are you proud of being the victim
Of everyone's pleasure & pain
Of everyone's fucking rules

Escape to free yourself
Life of cowardice (x2)

You're the one who might change something
But your the prisoner of all your hate inside
Be the one who will change everything
Not falling to the ground, not falling in the end
