

Moonlyght, Middle

I am in front of a falling empire
I am standing right in front of you all!

I know you're there
Somewhere between love and hate
I would die to see you fall in tears
Do you believe hope may still exist?
My eyes seeing clearer now

(In the) center of our depraved world
In the middle of a universe completely transformed
In the heart of the endless nights
Sailing through the storm towards death or life

LA rponse nous appartient
Seule la vrit saura faire mal
Tranchante mais satisfaisante
Pour qu'un jour cette souffrance
Soit pense dans l'oubli...

Efface jamais (x2)

We walk on fire by now
Two poles will never touch themselves
Slowly we are falling in a dream
Suddenly it's the last day of human race

Your innocence is gone
Your innocence is gone
Can't praise your lord anymore?
Who is your lord? Is it God?

Obscurum
Despero
Medius
Animus
Aeternus
(x4)

Observe...

Your innocence is gone
Can't praise your lord anymore?
Who is your lord? Is it God?

(In the) center of our depraved world
In the middle of a universe completely transformed
In the heart of the endless nights
Sailing through the storm towards death or life

LA rponse nous appartient
Seule la vrit saura faire mal
Tranchante mais satisfaisante
Pour qu'un jour cette souffrance
Soit pense dans l'oubli...

As we're slowly consumed by anger
In the center of eternity and beyond
In every breath you take, think
(Do you) still like the day you see?

Can you stand these flames of destruction?
How much time you will stand these flames of destruction?
