Moonspell, First Light

Somewhere inside a soul
A shadow is taking over
My questions are being answered
An act of courage
My story is being told
Somewhere inside these four walls
Another war has begun

The prodigal Son came home tonight To slay his father And drink his blood

Noite eterna Primeira vida Ainda por revelar Noite eterna Primeira sombra Ainda por revelar

With the violence of a first light

Somewhere in a rose of death A leader is being followed His cities are catching fire But he doesn't hear His people screaming

Somewhere as the morning breaks Steps are heard in the shattering glass The bride to be returned to the feast To make love end

"Noite eterna Primeira vida Ainda por revelar Noite eterna Primeira sombra Ainda por revelar"

With the violence of a first light

Hordes of the Shadow Sun Afire with the intuition We are a race of sorrows beholding The tear and the wear of the Earth

FIRST LIGHT, CURSED BE!
