

Moonspell, Heartshaped Abyss

Never resist
The firewalker
He has been sent To educate you
never look back
at the great Deep and never dance to that curse he sings

Never resist
The life long Pessimist
he is the leader
and not the enemy
My heart complete
put to destroy you
my darkness's obsolete
please let me follow you

^chorus^
And when we meet there
into the Heartshaped abyss you'll scar me with your kiss
and when we meet there
into the Heartshaped abyss
you'll forgive me everything scared away
get away

Never resist
the firewalker
He has been sent
to lay a curse on you
never resist
never look back
Liar I'm ready to push you

^chorus^

Let's get away from this world to a place we are still beautiful
