

Moonspell, Memento Mori

I am the moment, the soul the moment that ends it all I am the second, the will
the serpent, the one you last recall the living pulse of nightmares is on my side with the shadows I fade into you a secret promise of leaving blanking your eyes when you look for me try for once inside

in the sleep of cruelty the old sounds of you and me

I am the moment, the soul
the moment that ends it all
the serpent, the one you last recall (you are lost) the ones so long forgotten now at your side their spirits travel from me into you a rush of waters then afterlife the wind in the trees yours is the fight in this minute dark

I am the moment, the soul
the moment that ends it all
the serpent, the one you last...

the old sounds of you in me and for a moment it's gone the beauty of it all I am the second, the fall the logic of it all

I am the moment, the soul

memento mori!
