

Moony, Acribats

Raindrops, tears are falling
Catch me, now i'm floating,
In your arms, I'm home again

Forever in my heart you'll always be,
A part of me, yeeeeee
Forever in my head, I'll take care, of you,
And here are my feelings...
Whenever you will need, I'll be there, for you,
We're acrobats looking for balance,
Pure love, you complete my opposite heart,
So I need you...

Raindrops, tears are falling
Catch me, now I'm floating
In your arms I'm home again
Together, forever...

Raindrops, tears are falling
Catch me, now I'm floating,
In your arms I'm home again

Forever in this life we'll always feel,
A karmic deal, yeeee
Together we will breathe, blow style, always,
And here are my feelings...

Forever in my thoughts the best part, of you
We're acrobats looking for balance,
Poor human beings walking blindly to see what inside our soul's

Raindrops, tears are falling
Catch me, now I'm floating
In your arms I'm home again
Together, forever...

Raindrops, tears are falling
Catch me, now I'm floating
In your arms I'm home again

Remember the day when we were a child,
Never forget it or you won't cry again

Raindrops, tears are falling
Catch me, now I'm floating
In your arms I'm home again
Together, forever...

Raindrops, tears are falling
Catch me, now I'm floating
In your arms I'm home again.
