

Mordred, Spellbound

There's a method to madness
It measures in by the light (?? - MG)
There's an evil among us
And it's blinding our sight
Propaganda, deception
Their subliminal lies
Infiltrate the airwaves
The light in your eyes
Chorus
Spellbound by the light
You don't have the right
To ever ask why
They're ruling your mind
Mass mental disorder
A generation ago
They're lost in confusion
(?? - MG)
Let you question the people
Who are plotting these schemes
When they silence your questions
When they shatter your dreams
{Repeat Chorus}
Heed they - (?? - MG)
D-Day - (?? - MG) never mentioned
Victims - programmed with precision
Punished - by the television
{Solos}
{Repeat Chorus Twice}
