

Morgana, Colors Of My Dream

Shadows in the rain
Are walking everyday
Looking for tomorrow running far away
Waiting for the night,
Living all my life
I can feel the music in the morning light.

Why, look into your eyes,
Baby I love you. Wind is blowing over your skin
Colors of my dream.
Colors of my dream

Come into my life,
Moving deep inside
Just to feel emotion sleeping in my mind
Hoping for the day
Looking like a game
I can always shine on like a brand-new flame.
