

Mortal Love, Sanity

Your shadow on the wall, I'm searching for answers

I think you turn me around

My cold, cold love feeds my intention

In my heart there's a hellish creation

My broken heart leaves my mind in pieces

Temptation brings the storm to my life

This is my theatre of tragedy

I share with you my pain

Your shadow on the wall, I'm searching for answers

No time to turn it around

I hope this pain, will cure my disease

I think this pain, will put me at ease

I know I'm self-destructive, I keep letting myself down

But my life in chaos always kills it in the end

This is the sin

For I have been loved

This is the sin

This is my sin

It's my betrayal
