Motley Crue, Sticky Sweet

When she calls me up My voice, it starts to shake She says come right over Over right away Oh, good God, there's a fire In my pants Then lightning strikes and she Laughs that evil laugh

She's so sticky
Stick sweet Now when I've done good
She slaps me on the ass
It takes more than ten seconds
To satisfy this lass
The way she walks, I swear
Should be a crime
Sirens scream everytime
She walks by

She's so sticky Stick sweet
