

Mott The Hoople, Home Is Where I Want To Be

(Mick Ralphs)

Maybe I'm just a loser

Maybe it's because my boots ain't as clean as they could be

Came to town with an even chance

I'm feeling down the people I meet ain't fair to me

Gave it a try but now I'm ready to cry

And run back to the place where I was raised

Maybe I'm just unfortunate

Maybe I'm alone in thinking that I've got a lot to say

Too far in to be anywhere

Lost in the place where nobody seems to know the way

Gave it a try but now I'm ready to cry

And run back to the place where I was raised

Home is where I wanna be

Home is where you'll always see

Friendly faces that'll never turn you down

Or say goodbye

Maybe I'm just a loser

Maybe it's because my boots ain't as clean as they could be

Came to town with an even chance

I'm feeling down the people I meet ain't fair to me

Gave it a try but now I'm ready to cry

And run back to the place where I was raised

Home is where you'll always see

Friendly faces that'll never turn you down
