

Moxy Fruvous, Lee

(Dave on lead)
Only just we two blood in my veins
the shadow of you

Perfect as frost
on the flowers
How a contrary calls
day always breaks
night always falls

Rotten fruit and bending trees rocketships and our disease

So come with me up to the balcony
and we'll fall like paper planes
In the morning the paper will say &quot;Lovers fly away&quot;

Even alone I'm your fool
I can't keep my word
the edge of the pool

Red rushing sound
in my ears
as the candles burn down
one lights the way
one disappears

Tiny portraits smashed on the floor
I can't kneel at your bed anymore

So, come with me up to the balcony
and we'll fall like paper planes
In the morning the paper will say &quot;Lovers fly away&quot;

Lovers Fly Away
