

Mozart Season, Ankle Deep Ocean

I feel like I'm drowning in ankle deep water.
But I put myself
In this ocean of...
In this ocean of regret
And Honestly,
I never want to come back to where I am right now.
My heart feels like its about to explode,
And all I can think is I wanna go home.
The pressures building...
The pressures building...
The pressures building inside
Well this isn't what I expected
No, this isn't what I wanted it to be...
Well this isn't what I expected
No, this isn't what I wanted it to be...
But I signed my life away a long time ago!
And a deal
With the devil isnt what you'd expect it to be, oh no.
I feel like I'm drowning in ankle deep water!
Oh god, I'm fuckin drowning in ankle deep water!
I feel like Im drowning in ankle deep water!
I feel like Im drowning in ankle deep water, water!
Well this isn't what I expected
No, this isn't what I wanted it to be...
Well this isn't what I expected
No, this isn't what I wanted it to be...
Well this isn't what I expected
No, this isn't what I wanted it to be...
Well this isn't what I expected
No, this isn't what I wanted it to be...
