

Mr. Big, One World Away

Everything is always changing
Even in a world that stays the same
Breakin' heavy hearts are shaken
All the lonely people live the game
He waits for her, she waits for him
They wait for anyone
And another day begins

{Chorus}:
People rushin' everywhere
Never any time to care
Us and them and me and you
Piling up so much to do
All the colors start to fade to grey

An ordinary day is just
One world away

Try to give them what they want
You're stuck inside that same old
State of grace
All we are, all we seem
A noisy dream inside a quiet place
I wait for her, she waits for him
He waits for anyone
And another day begins

{Chorus} (2x)
