

Mr&Ms, Love is not a reason to cry

The first time I saw you
You were looking at me
My heart began to beat so fast
And your eyes. They told me
You are my destiny
And I should forget all the past
The first time I saw you
You were sad and alone
Somebody just broke your heart
And I told you, my girl
Its ok, dont you cry
Finish line could be a new start
Love is not a reason to cry
Love is not a reason to cry
R/F
Love is not a reason to cry
Love is not a reason to cry
Love is not a reason to cry
Love is not a reason to cry
You showed me how to fly
With your love and your smile
You just gave me reason to live
Day by day night by night
I will be by your side
Wanna be the air that you breathe
Love is not a reason to cry
Love s not a reason to cry
