

Ms. Dynamite, It Takes More (Clean Version)

The things that you promote fighting, violence, like you don't want to grow old you talkin so much sex, but you na tell the youths about aids and you na tell them of consequence, no you talkin like you a G but you a killer killing your own you're just a racist man's fossey what when, who where or how you loose control certainly not me, certainly not me

'coz baby personally
i like to be challenged mentally i've heard it all before quality is born a girl like me is born

it takes more (it takes more)
to amuse a girl like me so much more (much more) to confuse a girl like me they've got you (got you)
'cos while you're braggin bout your badness you're just, avoiding, adding to the real shit that's happening to us now who gives a damn about, the ice, on your hand if it's not to complex tell me how many africans died for the bagettes on your rolex so what you pushing a nice car don't you know, there's no such thing as superstars

we leave this world alone so who gives a shit about the things you own

certainly not me, certainly not me
'coz baby personally
contents insignificant and it don't help to pay my rent it's pure negativity that you impose on me show them to think higher and aspire to be more
