

Muddy Waters, Twenty-Four Hours

Oh I mistreated my baby last night
Woman from holding you here in my arms
Oh I mistreated my baby last night
Woman from holding you here in my arms
Now you know she been gone 24 hours
And that's 23 hours too long

You know if I had a million dollars
I would give every dime to bring her back home
Oh, how my poor heart bleeds peoples
It's so sad to be alone
Now you know she been gone just about 24 hours
And that's 23 hours too long

Oh, my baby's so pretty
This little girl she looks just like a charm
I love this woman
This woman, she looks just like a charm
Now you know she been gone 24 hours
And that's 23 hours too long
