

Mudhoney, Drinking For Two

He'll say friend, have you met the new misses?
Well, Step up and meet the new misses
We're not really married, But we might as well be Made from good luvvin' Got a bun in the oven
No she's drinking for two
She's drinking for two
She's drinking for two
She's drinking for (two)

Two hungry livers to feed
She's got two hungry livers to feed
I can't get no prouder, got to shout it out louder
And it's so at ease gonna be just like me
She's drinking for two
She's drinking for two
She's drinking for two
She's drinking for two

Well gathering friends and toasts are at hand
Oh, he'll be alright that sweet bastard of mine
She's drinking for two
She's drinking for two
She's drinking for two
She's drinking for two
She's drinking for two
