

Mudhoney, Thorn (7" Version)

I've got a thorn in my side
About the size of your eye
I feel it stickin' through
I feel it stickin' through

You're watching for me
With such intensity
It doesn't matter what I do
It doesn't matter what I do

Take your eyes off me
Maybe then you'll see
The world was tinglin' at you
The world was watching you

You're just a thorn in my side
Wasted effort, wasted time
It doesn't matter what I do
It doesn't matter what I do
It doesn't matter what I do
Your world is dying too
