

Mudmen, 5 O'Clock

Yeah, I'm gonna drink it all up, oh my ale is dear.
Yeah, I'm gonna go get messed up, oh my ale is dear.
Yeah, I'm gonna drink it up drink it up, oh my ale is dear.
Yeah, I'm gonna drink it up 'til we drop, oh my ale is dear.

Well I walked on down to the pub again
And sank into the oblivion
When I ran into my old friend Pat
Who knew just where my head was at
We made our way to the end of the bar
And ordered up ourselves a jar
When someone said it's not quite noon
I said it's early but, it's not too soon

It's five o'clock somewhere, it's time for another

Yeah, I'm gonna drink it all up, oh my ale is dear.

Well it's what I need today,
cause I've been working like a slave
And my head feels like a gun
And it's all been said and done
Well I'm caught up in the craze
Like some beggar on the stray
There's a lunatic inside
That keeps me wasted all the time

To the pubs I will go
Where I'll drink
With my brothers and your sisters
And your mothers and your lovers

To the pubs we will go
Where we'll sync with each other
With your sisters with your brothers
With you mothers

It's five o'clock somewhere
It's time for another
Days never seem so long
But the nights were never long enough
It's five o'clock somewhere so let's have another
Yeah, I'm gonna drink it all up, oh my ale is dear

Oh well the night here never ends
It's always five up in the den
So I'll hang around and get into your gutter
We can rant and we can rave 'til they put us in a grave
Then we'll get up and we'll have ourselves another

It's five o'clock somewhere, it's time for another
Days never seem so long, but the night were never long enough
It's five o'clock somewhere so let's have another

Yeah, I'm gonna drink it all up, oh my ale is dear.
Yeah, I'm gonna go get messed up, oh my ale is dear.
Yeah, I'm gonna drink it up drink it up, oh my ale is dear.
Yeah, I'm gonna drink it up 'til we drop, oh my ale is dear.

Yeah, I'm gonna drink it all up, oh my ale is dear.
Yeah, I'm gonna go get messed up, oh my ale is dear.
Yeah, I'm gonna drink it up drink it up, oh my ale is dear.
