

Mudvayne, Fall Into Sleep

Dreams of earthquakes

Dreams of hurricanes

Dreams of pouring rain

Dreams of tidal waves...to wash us all away

Dreams of guns blazed

Dreams of fire rage

Dreams of swollen graves

Dreams of hollow pain

All gone

No more fallen

No more enemy

No more casualty

No more dream

Fall into sleep

Fall into me

I have a dream

But nobody cares

Nobody wants to listen

Fall into sleep

Fall into me

Hang on to a dream that nobody wants

Nobody cares anymore

Dreams of mourning grief

Dreams of disbelief

Dreams of tragedy

Dreams of our disease...to take us all away

Dreams of fidelity

Dreams of inner peace

Dreams of loyalty

Dreams of unity

All gone

All gone

Fall into sleep

Fall into me

I have a dream

But nobody cares

Nobody wants to listen

Fall into sleep

Fall into me

Hang on to a dream that nobody wants

Nobody cares anymore

The angels are injured

Fall with broken burning wings

Are we dead inside

Are we blind

We can't keep moving forward

Backwards with closed eyes

We're losing sight

All lost inside

No more fallen

No more enemy

Fall into sleep

Fall into me

I have a dream

But nobody cares

Nobody wants to listen

Fall into sleep

Fall into me

Hang on to a dream that nobody wants

Nobody cares

Nobody wants

Nobody cares anymore

All gone

All gone

All gone

All gone
