

Mudvayne, I.D.I.O.T.

Through my skin you climb,

To my eyes

I say goodbye

Now that you're on the inside

Blinded eyes in front of you hide

Fucked with me

I was an idiot

You fucked with me

And i havent done shit

All about everything that im against so fuck this i dont need your shit

Life is pain and pain is my life

Life is pain and pain is my life

In your mind I was just a novelty

So does this define how you feel towards me

Do unto me what has been done to

You feed off the pain thats been reproduced

Fucked with me

I was an idiot

Fucked with me

And i didnt do shit i fuckin hurt so bad now,

So i think i'll just lie down...

I don't need you i just need me

I don't believe in you, so dont believe in me

Pain pain go away, come again some other day

Pain pain go away,

Don't need this mother fuckin shit, now anyway

I don't need you i just need me

I don't believe in you, so dont believe in me

Life is pain and pain is my life

I dont need you i just need me

I dont believe in you, dont believe in me
