Mudvayne, The End Of All Things To Come

All over with,

Fuck all the flags, the greed, the world leaders

Run for the fence

We're coming, We're killing, We're changing the faces

Believe in yourself

Let go of ego strenghten within yourself all over with

We're coming, We're killing, We're changing the faces

I'm killing, every fucking thing until somebody gets the fucking point, the point I'm trying to make

I lead, the mice on parade,

Down to the river of Kool Aid, and open up the flood gates

I need a barrel of Cyanide; a pile of Strychnine untill the whole damn world is dead

Start over again

All over with,

Fuck all the flags, the greed, the world leaders

Run for the fence

We're coming, We're killing, We're changing the faces

Stop talking, negotiating,

Your feeble attempts towards world peace,

Gimme a fucking break

Need world-wide genocide, planetary suicide and when the whole damn world is dead...

there's your fucking peace

All over with,

Fuck all the flags, the greed, the world leaders

Run for the fence

We're coming, We're killing, We're changing the faces

Believe in yourself

Let go of ego strenghten within yourself all over with

We're coming, We're killing, We're changing the faces

Oxygen wasters... Come on!

We've come... to save you, to save you from yourselfs

Kill or be killed

All over with,

Fuck all the flags, the greed, the world leaders

Run for the fence

We're coming, We're killing, We're changing the faces

Believe in yourself

Let go of ego strenghten within yourself all over with
