

Mudvayne, Trapped In The Wake Of A Dream

Do I deserve these beatings?

Hating me,

well then,

Cut, cut the noose

and let me fall away...

I'm, growing weak and tired

of you

and your little shoving games

fucking...

pushing me.

You pulled the trigger,

trapped in,

the wake,

of your

Dream

You're all killers.

Always fucking pushing me;

insulting me;

I've overcome;

I have found the strength of gods in me.

Crushing

All unwilling;

This is so unstoppable.

Hard as nails,

hook that holds,

reach down and find the strength of many in you.

My sanctuary...

calling my name,

so I run through...

to the light,

weeping through a cloud.

Darkened,
by a tainted dream,
of me,
being pummeled by the tide,
crushing,
killing me
But I can't wake up,
trapped in,
the wake of a

Dream

You're all killers.

Always fucking pushing me;

insulting me;

I've overcome;

I have found the strength of gods in me.

Crushing

All unwilling;

This is so unstoppable.

Hard as nails,

hook that holds,

reach down and find the strength of many in you.

Call it;

call a truce.

I'm believing

in it more and more.

Comfort;

purge the truth, I'll believe it.

I'm so weak and sore, shadowed

Hide and seek,

but you never looked.

I wait behind the door

call out;

bite the hand that is feeding...

Compassion no more.

I hope I never wake up.

Dream-sewing, filters, distort reality of what is mine through light this mind awakens

I draw the line from then and now, awake and dreaming, forgotten past future becomes mine.

Throw the chains,

all away,

take control,

of your life.

Powers known,

this is my...

Throw the chains,

all away,

take control,

of your life.

Powers known,

this is my...

Dream

You're all killers.

Always fucking pushing me;

insulting me;

I've overcome;

I have found the strength of gods in me.

Crushing

All unwilling;

This is so unstoppable.

Hard as nails,

hook that holds,

reach down and find the strength of many in you.
