

Mull Historical Society, Am I Wrong

Come back my love
I'm trying to fight again
I'm getting it right again

Come back my love
Try to be brave again
I'm taking the strain again
I'm punching my weight again

But by now
I saved your life
Am I wrong
Am I wrong

Come back and be strong
I'm timing it right again
I'm taking the fight again

Come back my love
It might just be fate again
I'm taking the strain again
I'm punching my weight again

But by now
I saved your life
Am I wrong
Am I wrong
Am I wrong

And oh I've won the fight
But I'd fight again
I'll let you out to let you in
If only to be right or wrong
Am I right or wrong

Come back my love
Try to be brave again
Try to be brave again

Come back my love
I'm taking you up again
I'm taking you out again
Stop running away again

But by now, I saved your life
And by now, I've faced the fight
And just now, I saved your life
Am I wrong
Am I wrong
Am I wrong
