

Mumford & Sons, Snake Eyes

You hold it, in your hands,
And let it flow, this cruelty,
Of youth as you fall again,
Alone,
In the compromise of truth

It's in the eyes
I can tell you will always be danger
We had it tonight, why do you leave it open?

And the stakes remain too high
For this silent mind,
And the shake, the lonely itch,
That courses down my spine
To leave a love divine,
Don't leave a love divine
It's a water tight excuse

It's in the eyes,
I can tell you will always be danger
We had it tonight, why do you always seek absolution?
It's in the eyes,
I can tell you will always be danger

How does the earth around your feet just slip away?
And abandon, that greets you in the night
With snake eyes, the most precious kind.

It's in the eyes!
I can tell you will always be danger!
We had it tonight! Why do you always seek absolution?
It's in the eyes!
I can tell you will always be danger!