

Mundy, Private Paradise

PRIVATE PARADISE

You'll never see me again
'cause I'm going away somewhere I can be on my own, all alone where all is calm, see you took too much from me and you left me wasted, you drank all my bloody wine and you never even let me taste it

Chorus

I'm going away somewhere I can be on my own all alone, where all is calm

Here is my heart rapturing my soul it doesn't matter if you raptured it 'cause it's sailing and it's gold see a tree house somewhere in the sky and that's where I'm going where somewhere is always yeah, and a beautiful blue breeze is blowing

And I'll be ok, and I'll be ok be ok, be ok, be ok, be ok....
