

Murder Squad, Unsane, Insane And Mentally Deranged

Terrorstruck

Look deep into those fearful eyes

I suck in the fear

That seep out through every pore

Sick mind at work

Bewildered and in trance

Reach for your insides

To touch to feel and tear your soul apart

Bleed with you as I

Push the knife through your ribcage and in your heart

Lust and fulfillment

Warmth of your blood as it runs down on me

My hunger satisfied

When you scream and squirm in pain

Knowing that you?ll die

Unsane insane and mentally deranged

Deep inside of me

Your soul will live on

Forever together

Entangled in the mysteries of afterlife

Bleed with you as I

Push the knife through your ribcage and into your heart

Lust and fulfillment

Warmth of your blood as it runs down on me

My hunger satisfied

When you scream and squirm in pain

Knowing that you?ll die
