

Muse, Falling Away With You

I can't remember when it was good moments of happiness elude maybe I just misunderstood all of the love we left behind watching the flash backs intertwine memories I will never find so I'll love whatever you become and forget the reckless things we've done I think our lives have just begun
I think our lives have just begun and I'll feel my world crumbling, and I'll feel my life crumbling and feel my soul crumbling away and falling away,
falling away with you staying awake to chase a dream tasting the air you're breathing in I hope I won't forget a thing promise to hold you close and pray watching the fantasies decay nothing will ever stay the same and all of the love we threw away and all of the hopes we've cherished fade making the same mistakes again
making the same mistakes again
I can feel my world crumbling, I can feel my life crumbling I can feel my soul crumbling away
and falling away,
watching the flash backs intertwine
