Muse, Megalomania

Paradise comes at a price That I am not prepared to pay What were we built for? Could someone tell me please?

The good news is, she can't have babies And wont accept gifts from me What are they for? They'll just grow up, and break the laws you've loved

Take off your disguise I know that underneath It's me

Useless device, it won't suffice I want a new game to play When I am gone It won't be long, before I disturb you in the dark

And paradise comes at a price That I am not prepared to pay What were we built for? Will someone tell me please?

Take off your disguise I know that underneath It's me
