

Music Emporium, No Seer

Verse 1:

The phoenix glides
Sees the sun
Thought he was the only one
To grace the shores
In ash that's sunk
Reflections do not show what you'll become

Chorus:

You said, perfection can't be modified
Well you've changed too much to recognise
You'll have to burn again
Like the phoenix we'll start again

Verse 2

Your golden grasp
Comes undone
Thought you were, the only one
To hold a fist
A vibrant line
Reflections do not stay with you in time

Chorus:

You said, perfection can't be modified
Well you've changed too much to recognise
You'll have to burn again
Like the phoenix we'll start again

Interlude/Verse 3

You're frail, no seer
There's no such thing as the future
Your eyes shine in tears
Goodnight
