

Music Video, Another Borderline Emergency

It's rather fun to watch
Fun to watch when other fall
Hey by the way, there's a trap door down the hall
What a night for a storm
The rain will help to keep me warm
Perfect free form frequency
Another borderline emergency

I can't help wondering
What I'm doing here
And would it be a loss
If I were to disappear?

To everything turn, turn!
Feel a slow delicate burn
Why must you talk so loud?
Every silver lining has a cloud
And if at first you don't succeed
Ignore all evidence you tried
Because that which doesn't kill you, only makes you wanna die
