

Music Video, Nobody's Around

I'm walking on a razor's edge
I know its been said before
I've been looking for a way out
There never was a door

I wanna get away and ill be gone forever
I won't even look back, is that

I'm walking on some broken glass
As clich as it sounds
I wanna hear the tree that falls
When nobody's around

I wanna get away and ill be gone forever
I won't even look back, is that so much to ask?
