

Musiq Soulchild, Babygirl

[Verse 1]

Pardon me my darlin
But do you have a second
Just so I can tell you
How you caught my full attention
Now how is it that you look
So well put together
Flawless as can be,
It just dosnt get no better

[Chorus]

Hey babygirl, why don't you come home with me
And let me show you what some good lovin can be Cause I got so much love inside and I wanna give
It all to you babygirl, to you baby girl.

[Verse 2]

Ya body's picture perfect and there ain't
A brick that's missing
You look like yo mama raise you on them grits an chicken
Now I know that you heard this like probably all the time
But if you come with me
I'm gon make it worth your while.

[Chorus]
