

Must, Heartbreaker

I as mad as you are obsessively completely
Scouring the backwoods in a mind-warped frenzy
Hallelujah the night is white at the deep end
Heartbreaker
My God and saviour

There no such thing as home no
Except for one place I heard of Brace yourself for the ride of your life
Then again hang loose there naught that you can do

Heartbreaker
My God and saviour
Heartbreaker (There no such thing as home)
And I going to take you (There no such thing as home)

And when my faith is in tatters
And I squirming uneasy
That when I know
I finding my way

Heartbreaker
My God and saviour
Heartbreaker (Wee all going to die anyway)
And I going to take you (Wee all going to die anyway)
