

Mustard Plug, No One But Myself

im, wasting my time telling you why ive been so frustrated you, you always knew, i was the end now, now i must say its in the way, ive been tempted baby you, you always knew i would bend i cant deny
the reason why
you got my cryin baby
im fooling no one but myself now that you're gone
am im alone
i found the answer baby ill keep my anguish to myself im angled up
woven in knots
that you're spinning baby
you, you spun the web
where i await
when we are alon
i always know that my mind is made up biding my time, risking my fate
