

MuteMath, Typical

Come on cant I dream for one day
Theres nothing that cant be done
But how long should it take somebody
Before they can be someone

Cause I know theres got to be another level
Somewhere closer to the other side
And Im feeling like its now or never
Can I break the spell of the typical

Ive lived through my share of misfortune
And Ive worked in the blazing sun
But how long should it take somebody
Before they can be someone.

Cause I know theres got to be another level
Somewhere closer to the other side
And Im feeling like its now or never.
Can I break the spell of the typical.
The typical
Im just the typical
Can I break the spell of the typical

Because its dragging me down
Id like to know about when
When does it all turn around
