

Mutya Buena, Real girl

If I had one chance to, in my life again,
I wouldn't make no changes, now or way back when (yeah) and if everything turns out, the way i hope it goes,
But I cant wait to find out, what it is that God knows.
But I don't wanna think about whats gonna come around for me,
I'll just take it day by day, cuz it's the only way, to be the best that I can be
I never pretend to be something I'm not,
You get what you see, when you see what I've got,
We live in the real world, I'm just a real girl,
I know exactly where I stand,
and all I can do is be true to myself,
I don't need permission from nobody else,
Cuz this is the real world, I'm not a little girl,
I know exactly who I am
And nothing's ever perfect, there's no guarantee,
And if I knew the answers it would put my mind at ease (no)
So I'll just keep on going the way I've gone so far,
And maybe I'll end up tryin to catch a fallin star (yeah)
But I don't wanna think about whats gonna come around for me,
I'll just take it day by day, cuz it's the only way,
to be the best that I can be
I never pretend to be something I'm not,
You get what you see, when you see what I've got,
We live in the real world, I'm just a real girl,
I know exactly where I stand,
and all I can do is be true to myself,
I don't need permission from nobody else,
Cuz this is the real world, I'm not a little girl,
I know exactly who I am
Baby this is who I am,
Don't need you to understand,
Cuz everything is right where it should be,
it wont be long til you know about me,
Cuz I don't give a-a
Even when I'm out of love
Cuz everythings just how it should be,
And it wont be long til you know about me,
I never pretend to be something I'm not,
You get what you see, when you see what I've got,
We live in the real world, I'm just a real girl,
I know exactly where I stand,
and all I can do is be true to myself,
I don't need permission from nobody else,
Cuz this is the real world, I'm not a little girl,
I know exactly who I am
I never pretend to be something I'm not,
You get what you see, when you see what I've got,
We live in the real world, I'm just a real girl,
I know exactly where I stand,
and all I can do is be true to myself,
I don't need permission from nobody else,
Cuz this is the real world, I'm not a little girl,
I know exactly who I am
I know exactly who I am
