

MxPx, Broken Hearted

I'm broken hearted, broken hearted for you
So don't get me started on repairs
I know what you're gonna do
You'll break it again
I know I can't win
You'll just break my heart again
So the worst you do would make me cry
You prolly done it to a hundred guys
I'm not cryin', I got somethin' in my eyes
You said you never really felt a thing
You said you didn't like the way I sing
I'm not cryin', but my eyes they really sting
I'm broken hearted, broken hearted for you
So don't get me started on repairs
I know what you're gonna do
You'll break it again
I know I can't win
You'll just break my heart again
Sounded crazy before you said goodbye
Called me a loser, hopin' I would die
I'm not cryin', I got somethin' in my eye
You said you never really felt a thing
You said you didn't like the way I sing
I'm not cryin', but my eyes they really sting
I'm broken hearted, broken hearted for you
So don't get me started on repairs
I know what you're gonna do
You'll break it again
I know I can't win
You'll just break my heart again
